Through our thoughts, therefore our choices, we shape our life's actions for good, for apathy or for evil. Unlike much of the animal world, humanity has choices for the direction of their life. Our free will allows us far greater freedom if we choose to think critically.

Our choices of following the herd blindly, often with very serious consequences, or think for ourselves, is described in the Bible. From Matthew 7:13-14 "Enter at the narrow gate, for wide is the gate and broad is the way that leads to destruction, and there are many who are going through it, ¹⁴ because small is the gate and narrow is the way which leads to life, and there are few who find it". That small gate may be defined as the life that is open to those who are willing to think critically and use their God-given free will for good.

Thinking clearly and developing a commitment to find truth on any subject does not depend on one's level of education. The science of the physical, material world has been presented in the education system as the true and sole reality in the past few centuries, particularly in the West. Dr. Rudolf Steiner (1865-1925), was a great philosopher who devoted his entire life in an almost superhuman commitment to bringing the reality of the science of spirituality to an industrial, material world. The two perceptions of the world, spiritual science and material science, have seemed incongruent in the last few centuries of human history. The arrogant, close-minded, profit-driven, intellectual could only conceive the material world and was contrived through the education system to scoff at the concept of the science of spirit. The science of the material world does have great value and important truths. Unfortunately, very few scientists realize there is a deeper, non-physical element, a true understanding of the cosmos.

Comprehending the unseen spiritual reality can begin with a deeper understanding of our physical body. We are much more than our physical body made of up organs, cells, molecules, atoms and sub-atomic particles. With very high powered microscopes we can see a kind of fog which is actually energy in the form of a wave or particle made up of pure invisible vibrations. Energy is released in these vibrations. Albert Einstein said that all matter is organized energy, that energy and matter are interchangeable. Since the body has mass, it is energy. We are not solid but are a latticework of energies of vibrational frequencies. In other words, our physical body is dense energy. In fact, all of creation is, at its essence, energy.

Our physical body, our energy bodies contain information. Our experiences, our conscious and subconscious memories are all stored, in the smallest detail, in the various levels of the energy bodies of our physical body. Each cell in the body is a sender and receiver of information and energy. Further, we all have the potential to read the energy field of others. This exchange of energetic information is what creates emotional reactions to individuals without having interacted with them consciously. Our slightest shift of mood is picked up, infinitesimally, by every cell, which means that we do not think with your brain alone — all 50 trillion cells in our body actively share our thoughts. This is one level at which we can be defined as spiritually all one. Spiritual science is the open-minded commitment to understanding the principles of the cosmos, laws of creation and human spiritual interaction. Profound beauty can emerge for humanity from our understanding of the vast potential of greater consciousness and spiritual awareness. What limiting material science could possibly match this exquisite gift of our God given reality?

When spiritual science is fundamental to an understanding of who we really are, why has it been ignored? What has been holding us back from understanding that we are both physical and spiritual? Why has this knowledge and its practical applications for our lives been suppressed? Since we are all one on an energetic level, why are we living in such ignorance and fear? The understanding of spiritual science, the science of the unseen reality, is under the control of those who wish to maintain ultimate power over humanity.

One of many manipulative trends was set starting in the 1960s. For example, in April, 1966, Time magazine had an edition cover entitled, "God is Dead". What an extraordinarily ugly and hopeless image. That concept had deep consequences for the beliefs of humanity and the direction of societal behaviors.

There is a small group of families who control the most powerful institutions globally. They have maintained their controls through manipulation of finances, health, education, media, food and more. They have created humanity's perception of the physical world. This has been the case for hundreds of years. Who are these manipulators? The answer may be revealed in the Bible.

Revelations 2:9 "I know the works, and tribulation, and poverty, (but thou art rich) and I know the blasphemy and them which say they are Jews, and art not, but are the synagogue of Satan".

Revelations 3:9 "Behold, I will make them of the synagogue of Satan, which say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie, behold, I will make them to come and worship before their feet, and to know that I have loved thee".

What is the basis of their controls? What inspires individual creative thought? Classical education, humanity's greatest levels of creativity in literature, art and music have virtually been taken out of the education system. Was growing ignorance of what distinguishes us as more fully human based on educational policies? Was educational policy, at all levels, deliberately sabotaged to make for a duller, more apathetic, easily manipulated population? To control vast numbers of people, they must have far less knowledge of all subjects than those who choose to manipulate. Inspiring the mindset, the arrogance in belief of intellectual superiority of many academics, doctors, media, politicians, financiers, etc. is an effort to secure the compliance to their authority and power over the population.

In spite of institutionalized controls courageous scientists have advanced in many way including free energy and forms of energy medicine to name just a few. The results have not always been positive.

Nikola Tesla, was a genius, the inventor of alternating current and patent holder of over 1400 patents. With the financial backing of J.P. Morgan, Tesla conducted experiments resulting in free energy, utilizing radiation from the sun. He could bring down ions from the ionosphere that could provide free and limitless energy to power our world. Morgan could not financially profit from these discoveries so he withdrew his financial support and in 1917, destroyed Tesla's Wardencliffe Tower and most of his scientific papers. Nikola Tesla and humanity was robbed of perhaps the single most important scientific advance in human history. From Tesla's hotel room in New York City, where he died in 1943, his papers were taken by the FBI. John Trump, President Donald Trump's uncle, a MIT professor, had access to these documents.

Many people who tried to further free renewable energy have been killed. From the site TheWarAgainstYou a video and transcript is available detailing some (326) of those murdered.

This kind of murderous greed has been the response to advances in other fields including medical innovations.

Dr. Valerie V. Hunt (1916-2014) was Professor Emeritus of Physiological Science at UCLA. She was a scientist and author of several books including, "Infinite Mind Science of the Human Vibrations and Consciousness." Her understanding of the human energy field allowed her to develop the AuraMeter. This device could record pre-disease energetic frequencies in the body. With this knowledge, many early stage health destroying conditions could have been eradicated before the damage was done.

These innovations and many more did not get their rightful place in human advancement. Where would humanity be right now if all of these advances had been fully utilized? Any one of these brilliant scientific or spiritual advancements would have transformed our world.

Those who are motivated by greed and power with their limitless contempt for humanity have held tightly to their reins of power. The destruction and withholding positive technological evolution and spiritual understanding from humanity has led us to a world of unfathomable degradation, pain, and many, many wars through lies. They have owned all outlets of knowledge of our world, until recently. The explosion of truth is now changing the dynamic.

“Great men are they who see that the spiritual is stronger than any material force, that thoughts rule the world.”

Ralph

Waldo Emerson

The transition to an understanding of truth is a slight perception of reality away. A gesture, a few truthful words can change an entire perspective. However, until we acknowledge God and the power beyond our own primitive Western view of humanity, the truth is reluctant to reveal itself. Furthermore, the powers that lie within spirituality are uncontrollable by those who attempt to control humanity. The rituals that aboriginal cultures practice engage these spiritual powers for the good of their people. Through these rituals they gain guidance and assistance from the spiritual world in all aspects of life. It may be time for all of us to view reality from a renewed perspective.

Proverbs 18:10 “The name of the Lord is a strong tower; the righteous man runs into it and is safe.”
